SPONSORS FOR ORPHANS!

Reward offered – safety, security & love!

BILLY ★

Billy is a very special dog with a heartbreaking past. He was brought to us bloody and beaten, starving, and had just been attacked with a machete across his face and nose. He was in such bad shape he barely even had a nose. Dr Flavi was able to help Billy and thanks to our dedicated team of volunteers and staff, Billy was given all the love and attention he deserved.

It's a joy to have witnessed his transformation to the happy, friendly and loving fellow he is now. However, he is extremely timid and wary of strangers. Due to his traumatic history, Billy will remain with us at his forever ZAASO home, and is in need of your gift of sponsorship.

SINATRA ★

A street cat with striking blue eyes, Sinatra was sterilized by ZAASO. Came the time to release him, he point-blank refused. He wouldn't get out of the carrier, or he wouldn't get in it. Several attempts later, we got the message.

ELVIS ★

Elvis is an exceptionally friendly, sweet and endearing fellow. Dropped off at our gate with nothing – no explanation and nobody around – the poor dog was malnourished and covered from head to toe in ticks. Despite his condition, Elvis greeted us with a wagging tail and a trusting look. Today, he is in excellent health, and we're happy to finally give him the care every dog deserves.

ERIC & AMINA ★★

Rescued together, theirs is a love story with a difficult beginning, and yet happy ending. They endured abusive conditions for years - Eric still has the scar around his neck from the tight chains that were bound around him. In an attempt to protect Amina, Eric would stand in front of her, allowing himself to receive the worst of the beatings. If that's not love, then what is?

Eric and Amina now live together happily at ZAASO. Despite their past, they are a people-loving duo with gentle and sweet personalities. Nevertheless, due to their traumatic history, they are not available for adoption but they are in need of sponsors.

MILO ★

Milo is one of those cats that just can't get enough attention. He loves people and likes to be best friends with everyone he meets. He was brought to us with a severely burned front leg, and our only option was to amputate. Thankfully, this certainly didn't diminish his spirit or his large personality, and he is doing great on three legs. Sadly, Milo's owners refused to take him back after he lost his leg. This resilient cat is now a part of our ZAASO family and is in need of sponsorship.

SARAH ★

Meet Sarah. She arrived only a few days ago at ZAASO, brought by children who said she “wasn’t well”. Besides malnutrition, the state of her body showed poorly healed cuts and scarring. It was quickly ascertained from the kids that Sarah was used as a fighting dog.

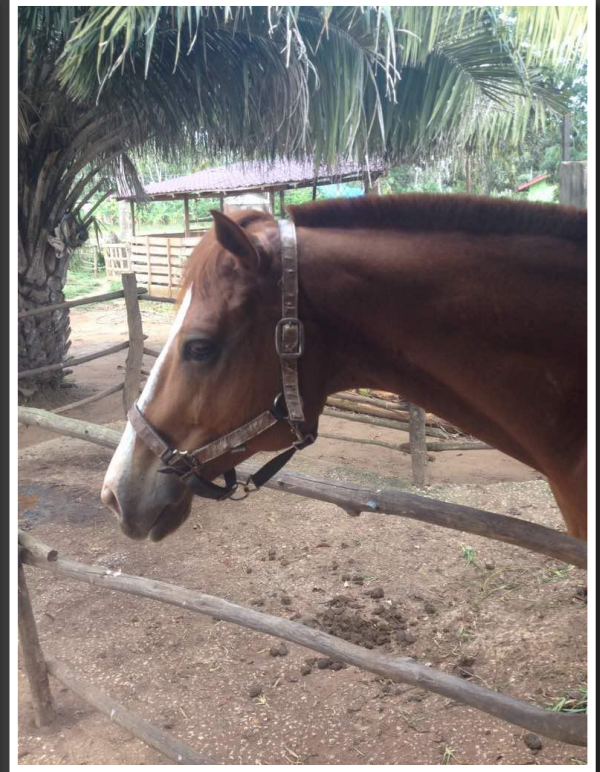

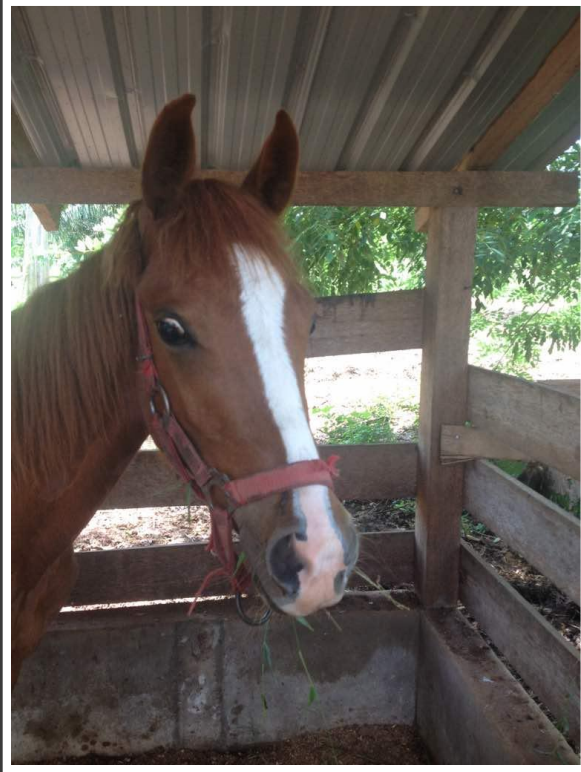

She was utterly terrified and could barely walk, so badly was she trembling with fear. Our volunteer Sarah (after whom she is named) was so moved, she took the trembling dog into her care. We bought Sarah from the kids; probably not the best policy, but we couldn’t face sending her back to where she came from.

MREMBO, NASRA, NANYUKI ★

ZAASO cares about all animals. Some are healthy and loved and only need our vet's attention from time to time, others are abandoned or rescues.

Our “orphans” are those who cannot be rehomed; trauma and abuse count for the overwhelming majority of these. Fortunately, some of our permanent residents are sponsored or co-sponsored, but our “orphans” are those who are not, and who are in need of a caring sponsor or sponsors.

Sponsorship is for food, shelter & medical care.

Suggested amount per month:

$70 for orphan dog

$50 for orphan kitty

$50 for orphan horse

Any funds remaining are used for the care of the many rescues that come to ZAASO.

Our latest arrival a few days ago is tiny Sikio (right). She was found being drowned in a ditch. When she's healthy and old enough, we will look to home her.
